

LEARNING DESIGN CONSULTANT

The Opportunity:

Arifu is looking to hire a highly motivated Learning Design Consultant to help us realize a bold vision of placing a smart personal learning assistant in everyone's hands across Africa and globally. In the coming years, Arifu will focus on expanding our educational content offering to increase our value to new and existing learners. This is a full-time remote position.

The Learning Team at Arifu designs content in partnership with industry experts and local and multilateral institutions and works closely with Arifu research and data teams to generate insights from field research, rapid A/B testing and learner data to drive the relevance and impact of Arifu's content on end learners. The Learning Designer will be responsible for research, writing and improving Arifu's expanding educational content offering.

This is a consultancy position reporting to the Learning Design Manager. It is a remote working position.

About Arifu:

Arifu's mission is to place information and opportunity in everyone's hands. The Arifu chatbot is an omnichannel (SMS, Facebook Messenger, WhatsApp, Telegram, and very soon Interactive Voice) enabled content marketplace and delivery platform that enables personalised advisory services that make learning FREE and RELEVANT whilst generating valuable insights and analytics for partners. Arifu has been able to provide learning to over 1.5 million people. We partner with organizations to digitize their in-person training programs, allowing anyone to access the content, anytime, on any mobile device. The Arifu personal adviser delivers content based on learner preferences and responses allowing for better engagement and impact.

Job Description:

The Learning Design Consultant will be responsible for:

- Participating in project scoping sessions with partners and technical experts;
- Performing field or agile research to gather insights on learner biases, mental models and cultural norms to inform content design;
- Contributing to the design and structure of new programs including setting learning outcomes, brainstorming treatment design, writing content and informing program evaluation;
- Communicating with partners to resolve content-related issues;
- Maintaining strong project management capabilities with planning, communicating, documenting, and tracking milestones and results;

Qualifications:

A desire to impact lives, the ability to commit to your team and the project goals, and exceptional problem-solving abilities are essential prerequisites for the Arifu team. For this role, we're also looking for someone with the following:

- 3+ years of work experience in learning content design, preferably in East Africa, Nigeria, or Liberia;
- Undergraduate degree in education or a related field;

- Strong written communication and excellent attention;
- Previous experience conducting qualitative research to inform learning content is a plus;
- Fluency in English required and, fluency in local official languages preferred;
- Motivation to develop skills conducting field research and willingness to spend long days in the sun, talking to people about their lives and observing them interacting with our products (depending on COVID regulations);
- Resourceful and proactive when generating solutions to the problems that stand in your way;
- Ability to enjoy (and survive) the chaos of a high-growth startup.

Arifu is an equal opportunity employer and will consider every qualified applicant. Arifu does not discriminate based on race, ethnicity, national origin, ancestry, religion, gender, sexual orientation or disability.

Compensation:

First and foremost, we care about the success of any engagement and will work together to ensure we achieve remarkable success. We, therefore, request that you indicate your rates, availability, and terms of engagement in your application for our consideration.

Application Process:

Please apply using this link (please note that we will only be accepting applications via this link). If we see a good fit, we'll get back to you to set up a conversation. You will be required to upload your CV and cover letter as one document (a maximum of two pages for the CV and one page for the cover letter), so please have that ready. In your cover letter, convey how your prior experiences in university and work are relevant to Arifu's mission and what motivates you to want to be a part of the team.
